Strike Out Domestic Violence in Passaic County!

24-hour hotline: 973-881-1450

PCWC Domestic Violence Awareness Event

October 28th, 2021 6:00 pm

T-Bowl II in Wayne, NJ

Why should we Sponsor this event?

- ◇ It supports needed services to someone who may be your family member, friend, neighbor, or co-worker. PCWC is the state designated provider of domestic and sexual violence services in Passaic County. We offer a 24-hour hotline, a 28 bed emergency Safe House, transitional housing, legal and housing advocacy, creative art therapy for child witnesses, counseling and case management, and community prevention outreach and education.
- ◇ In the last six months:
 - * 82 individuals (victims and their children) were sheltered at our Safe House
 - * 24 children received creative arts therapy by licensed clinicians
 - * 416 survivors received support through our Outreach Center, including legal advocacy, counseling and case management
 - * More than 200 calls were received and resources given on our 24-hour hotline
- ◇ It gives your company/organization an opportunity to let everyone know that you stand for Striking Out (Ending!) Domestic Violence through social media, email, press and other company exposure!
- ◇ It will be a super fun event to attend! There will be bowling, food, the chance to win great baskets, and awesome prizes for accomplishments such as highest scores and most strikes and gutter balls.
