

Counselor Advocate

Full Time Counselor Advocate position available at Womanspace. Bilingual a plus. BIPOC are encouraged to apply. Working from our office in Lawrenceville, this position includes providing individual and group counseling to adults and children, community outreach and advocacy for victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. Hours vary and interested candidates must be willing to work at least 2 nights a week.

Key candidates must have:

- Degree in social work, counseling or related field.
- Counseling and advocacy skills
- Experience in Direct Service
- Non-profit experience preferred

Compensation: The salary range is $45,000- $48,000 based on experience. Womanspace offers a comprehensive benefit packages that includes vacation leave, paid holidays, and paid absence; excellent medical and dental insurance with Womanspace paying 100% of employee premiums; and 401K contribution after one year of service.

Interested candidates should send resumes to Susan Victor jobs@womanspace.org.